DECLARATION OF SCOTT ARMSTRONG IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO TAKE DISCOVERY

I, Scott Armstrong, declare:

1. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiff, Well Go USA's, Motion for Leave to Take Discovery. This declaration is based on my personal knowledge, and if called upon to do so, I would be prepared to testify as to its truth and accuracy.

2. On or about May 3, 2011, using a popular and freely available BitTorrent application, I connected to a BitTorrent swarm purported to be sharing unauthorized copies of Plaintiff's film, "Ip Man 2.". This swarm was identified by the title "Ip.Man.2.2010.DVDRip .XviD-GiNji" and the following unique hash identifier:

B7FEC872874D0CC9B1372ECE5ED07AD7420A3BBB.

3. After connecting to the swarm, my BitTorrent software began downloading the film immediately, piece by piece, from multiple members of the swarm simultaneously. In turn, as per the default settings of the software, I also began uploading pieces of the film to any member of the swarm determined as suitable by the software and its related processes.

4. The numerous other persons in the swarm were each represented by the IP address of the internet account being used by each person to connect to the internet. This information was readily visible via my BitTorrent software. Various other data related to this filesharing process was listed alongside each IP address. Using proprietary software, I began logging the IP addresses and other data as well as taking timed screenshots of the filesharing activity. I continued this process, on Plaintiff's behalf, off and on through July 15, 2011.

5. After my BitTorrent software completed downloading the film, in the form of a digital video file, I carefully reviewed the file and compared it to the original film provided by the Plaintiff. The downloaded file was a complete and accurate embodiment of Plaintiff's film.

6. The attached exhibit comprises a list of IP addresses and related data corresponding to a portion of the Texas-based internet accounts witnessed by me and/or recorded by me as having been involved in the unauthorized reproduction and distribution of Plaintiff's film described above.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on August 9th, 2011 at my office in Houston, Texas.

Scott Armstrong

Subject: Notice of Claim of Copyright Infringement
To: [REDACTED]

Dear Verizon Online Customer:

We are writing to advise you that Verizon recently received a notification from a copyright owner of a possible copyright violation that appears to involve your Verizon Online account (the "Complaint").

The work(s) identified by the copyright owner in its Complaint are listed below.

We are contacting you because our records indicate that the Internet protocol (IP) address provided to us by the copyright owner was assigned to your service on the date and time identified by the copyright owner. While this activity may have occurred without your permission or knowledge by an unauthorized user, or perhaps by a minor who may not fully understand the copyright laws, as the primary account holder, you are legally responsible for all activity originating from your account.

Copyright work(s) identified in the Complaint:
